In their Motion, Defendants’ seek to seal “(1) their Memorandum in Support of Summary Judgement Motion, (2) their Opposition to any Motion for Summary Judgement filed by Plaintiffs, and (3) Exhibits to the Memorandum and Opposition.” Although Defendants’ motion does not specify which of the exhibits they are moving to seal, the Court’s review of the exhibits filed indicates that only five of the exhibits (exhibits K, N, O, P, and R) have been filed with the Clerk’s office with instructions that they be sealed. The Court hereby GRANTS Defendants’ Motion as to exhibits K, N, O, P, and R and directs the Clerk to place these exhibits under seal. In addition, the Court hereby GRANTS Defendants’ Motion to seal their Memorandum in Support of Summary Judgment, but only does so subject to Defendants’ filing of a redacted version of the memorandum that is available to the public. Finally, the Court DENIES Defendants’ Motion as to any future filings as premature. Defendants may, of course, move to seal future exhibits at the time that they are filed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
